Note: At the Praesidium level, officers are NOT ELECTED BUT ARE APPOINTED BY THE CURIA OR BY THE NEXT HIGHEST COUNCIL. The HB states the following: (Chapter 14, Sec 11): "The officers of the praesidium, other than the Spiritual Director, shall be appointed by the Curia. Should there be no existing Curia, the officers shall be appointed by the next-highest governing body. It is desirable to avoid open discussion as to the merits of possible officers, some of whom may actually be present. Therefore, it is the practice, on the occasion of a vacant officership, for the President of the Curia, after careful inquiry (above all from the Spiritual Director of the praesidium in question) with a view to ascertaining the most suitable person, to submit a name to the Curia; and the Curia, if it thinks fit, may appoint that person."
